Tropical Island Bar

Of the Chocomize custom chocolate bars the Tropical Island Bar is hands down the most relaxed. Originally from the Tropical Island of Tonga this bar has lazily floated from one tropical island to another. Along his journey the Tropical Island Bar has picked up souvenirs from his favorite islands. Some of the souvenirs the bar picked up were pointless; “Tropical Island Bar, when was the last time you wore that hula skirt you picked up in Hawaii?” asked the ever refined Romance Bar. The truth is in his travels the Tropical Island Bar has picked up a lot of junky chachkas, but some have left a lasting impression. Some of these souvenirs have become an important part of who Tropical Island Bar is today; Coconuts from Jamaica, Bananas in Costa Rica, Cantaloupe Melon from Sri Lanka and those awesome argyle socks from Bermuda. This free spirit is a citizen of the world who embodies the most relaxing aspects of the tropics!
