Dear Chocomize Fans,

As the holiday season approaches, we thought we would give you an update about everything going on at Chocomize, as well as tell you about some great gift ideas.

Our website was successfully launched last month to huge success and fanfare. We want to thank everyone who wrote to us with suggestions about updating and changing the website. Our number one goal is to make the Chocomize website both easy and enjoyable to use. Keep sending us e-mails about what you like and don't like about the site, and how we might improve it. We have had a lot of positive feedback so far but we are always looking for ways to improve.

We've also finished adding the charity portion of our website. Customers can now donate to the charity of their choice. It is important, especially so during the holiday season, that people give back to the community and elsewhere. In this spirit, in addition to donating part of our sales to charity, we have participated in other socially conscious projects. We recently heard about a program that was sending chocolate to troops in Afghanistan. We immediately decided to participate and we are happy to report that we sent a lot of chocolate overseas! To find out more about this charity, check out our blog on our website. If you hear about any other ideas, or think of a way to give back on your own, we would love to get involved. Send us a message at info@chocomize.com

The holidays are a great time to relax and spend time with family and loved ones. If your holidays are anything like ours at Chocomize, however, they can also be hectic and stressful. We at Chocomize think we can make your lives a little better this holiday season. Not only are our custom chocolate bars fantastic gifts, but they are also extremely affordable. Skip the long lines and the hassle of driving all over town. Chocomize bars are a unique gift that is guaranteed to put a smile on everyone's face. We offer great customer service and fast turnaround to make sure you get your chocolate in time for Christmas. We do recommend, however, that you give yourself at least five days prior to Christmas as it is one of our busiest times of the year. In addition, we are offering a special holiday discount for all our Chocomize fans. Simply type "holiday2009" in the coupon section of our checkout and receive a 10% discount off your next order.

One of our most popular holiday gifts has been the Chocomize "Chocolate of the Month Club". The recipient receives four different chocolate bars every month for, 3, 6, or 12 months. It is a great way to try new and delicious combinations of ingredients, and is literally the gift that keeps on giving. In addition, customers can save up to 25% off the regular price! Our custom chocolate bars have also been really popular as corporate gifts this holiday season. They are a great way to thank clients or reward employees for a job well done. To find out more about our custom packaging and design options, check out the bulk order section of our website or send us an e-mail at info@Chocomize.com

If you are looking to give the perfect custom chocolate bar, we have some great options. Check out our Christmas tree decorations. They are sure to put even the biggest scrooge into the Christmas spirit! In addition, our rose petals, mint leaves, violet petals, 23 karat gold, and chocolate butterflies make every custom chocolate bar really stand out (not to mention taste great.) If you are looking to give a fun present, check out our bacon, cayenne pepper, and sea salt ingredients that have proved to be highly popular. For those out of ideas, check out our favorites section that has a list of our most popular Chocomize bars. We will also soon be offering gift certificates, so keep checking our website for the latest news.

We love hearing all your comments. Whether they are about new ingredients, suggestions for the site, or just how great your custom chocolate bar tasted, we get excited every time we get a new e-mail in our inbox. Keep them coming! In addition, if you did not receive our newsletter and would like a copy, just send us an e-mail letting us know you'd like to be added to the newsletter list and we'll send you one right away.

Happy Holidays,

Your Chocomize Team
